Shri Madhav Bamne delivered his presidential address. He reviewed the branch activities specially membership drive, help to pensioners in getting revised pension and arrears, individual cases like employment on compassionate grounds, family pension, non-receipt of pension, CGHS facilities, medical care available at concessional rates etc.

Shri Vasant Kelkar, Secretary of the branch gave detailed report on activities of the branch and gave statistical information. He also read out minutes of the last GBM-2008 and were approved by the house unanimously. Thereafter, Shri Dattaray Mahadik, Treasurer and Shri Madhusudan Chandrachood, Internal Auditor presented financial account and the audit report to the house. These were approved with a minor printing mistake in balance sheet. President assured house that the mistake would be rectified. Shri Waman Bhome, President, AICGPA addressed the house giving latest information on pension and latest position on pension fixation for the BSNL pensioners.

An informative lecture and demonstration was delivered by Dr. Sudhir Bhalerao, ENT Specialist from Bhalerao Hospital, Akurdi. He analysed various problems faced by older people in respect of ear, nose and throat and explained remedies for the same. He also offered help to pensioners at concessional rate and answered all doubts taken of the audience and preventive measures to be taken. Shri Suresh Ranade thanks all those who participated, helped and worked to make the function useful to the pensioners.

GBM came to end at 2:30 PM after a lunch was served to all who were present.
